

VIET VU

1209 Oak Street #2 ~ San Francisco, California 94117
Phone (415) 305-1353 ~ E-mail: rvu00@yahoo.com

OBJECTIVE

To apply my extensive training in brewing science and technology towards a career in brewing.

EDUCATION AND TRAINING

Feb 2011- Master Brewer Certificate (July 29, 2011)
July 2011 World Brewing Academy - Master Brewer Program
An advanced level 20 week full-time program conducted at Siebel Institute in Chicago, IL (8 weeks) and Doemens Academy in Munich, Germany (12 weeks)

Theory segments of the program consist of modules covering:

Raw material analysis which includes, barley, malt, hops, water, and adjuncts; All phases of wort production; Yeast propagation, behavior, and management; Fermentation influences, controls, and procedures; Bottling/packaging technology and operations; Spoilage organism classification, identification, and troubleshooting; Principles of cleaning and hygiene; Filtration principles and technology; Process technologies and automated control systems; QA/QC; Sensory analysis training as well as style tastings and guidelines; Business of brewing and technical case studies.

Practical segments of the program include 12 weeks of advanced brewing and lab work including:

Hands-on brewing on production-level system at Doemens Academy; Recipes designed and brewed by students, analyzed at every phase of production and packaging; Quality Control/Quality Assurance lab work in Doemens lab facility including chemical analysis and practical microbiology; Extensive tours of breweries and brewing industry manufacturers and suppliers in Europe; Learned production techniques employed by traditional breweries as well as state of the art breweries; Practical malting; Practical work in Munich area breweries producing beers under supervision of trained German brewmasters; Soft drink Quality Control, recipe formulation, creation and packaging.

July 1999 Bachelor of Arts, History, San Diego State University,
San Diego, California

WORK HISTORY

Jan. 2005 – Jan. 2011 Paralegal, Strategy and Operational Risk Group
Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. – Law Department
San Francisco, California

Analyzed contracts, conducted legal research relating to consumer and bank privacy; communicated recommendations to attorneys. Communicated changes in telemarketing rules to internal lines of business. Negotiated and drafted Non-Disclosure and Independent Consulting agreements. Performed audits of various legal documents. Served as leader for revision of departmental intranet website including designing and maintaining webpage. Managed multiple projects for the legal group.

July 2000 - Jan. 2005 Paralegal, Litigation, Specializing in Intellectual Property,
Reed Smith, LLP
San Francisco, California

Managed multiple large-scale cases, deposition preparation, supervised legal document management including indexing, large scale document production, document research and review, file maintenance, legal research, drafting of correspondence, management of court filings, management of case clerk staff, familiar with patent litigation rules and procedure, and experience in trial preparation.

Oct. 1999 – July 2000 Paralegal, Litigation, Specializing in Intellectual Property
Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP
Menlo Park, California

Multiple large scale case management, deposition preparation, document indexing, document management including large scale document production, document research and review, file maintenance, drafting of correspondence, and management of court filings.

COMPUTER APPLICATIONS

Familiar with automated brewhouse control software
Microsoft Word, Excel, Power Point

REFERENCES

Available upon request