

Packaging Operator

Job Responsibilities:

- Must be able to work well within a small team focus on a safety-first environment
- Safely and efficiently operate, maintain, and troubleshoot all packaging equipment (kegging, bottling, canning)
- Collaborate with other departments to maintain daily schedule
- Maintain a high level of cleanliness and organization throughout the day
- Perform quality checks on bright tanks and packaged product, and accurately record results
- Understand the fundamentals of brewing and packaging processes
- Basic preventative maintenance
- Remain flexible and willing to help with any task around the brewery

Required Skills / Experience:

- Previous brewery/packaging experience a plus
- Understanding of common packaging concerns
- Mechanical aptitude and ability to problem solve independently
- Attention to detail
- Self-motivated
- Ability routinely adhere to SOP
- Ability to multi-task
- Positive attitude, desire to learn
- Willingness to work early mornings/nights/weekends as necessary
- Strong communication skills
- Passion for craft beer

Physical Requirements:

- Standing and moving for an entire shift (up to 8-10 hours per day)
- Ability to repeatedly move up to 165lbs during a shift
- Climbing/crouching/working in tight spaces
- Ability to work in hot/cold, loud and wet environments

Compensation

- Competitive pay based on experience
- Medical/Dental/Vision insurance available
- 401k program
- Paid time off
- Generous beer perks

Please submit resumé and cover letter to Riley@threetavernsbrewery.com